Product Description

2024New commercial treadmill

This is a new product developed by Qingdao Hongbinsheng Health Technology Co., Ltd. in 2024. It is a commercial treadmill with an elegant appearance and a strong sense of technology.

1. Designed by professional experts based on the principles of human motion mechanics.

Our products are made of high-quality imported steel and pipes, such as rectangular pipes, flat elliptical pipes, and elliptical pipes, with increased thickness.

3. Our machine is processed by physical sandblasting, anti rust zinc coating, and two additional layers of spray paint, with a perfect appearance and hardness, as well as strong anti-corrosion adhesive.

4. Slope: 20%

5. We adopt advanced wear-resistant systems and carbon dioxide protection welding devices to ensure the stability and safety of each machine.

6. Product features: time, heart rate, calories, slope, distance, speed adjustment
