- More Accessible & Hassle Free The 3.2 inch dual-wheel ab roller offers extra support and stability compared to the common single ab wheel. Equipped with a knee pad, this ab roller wheel delivers comfortable workout experience and caring protection. Just embrace the freedom of more thrilling and challenging routines without the hassle of using resistance bands!
- Grow Six Packs Faster & Safer The Vinsguir abs wheel targets your abdominals, hip flexors and back muscles. With dedicated practice, this exercise wheel will speed up your core & low back strengthening while lessening your risk of muscle injury.
- Efficient Exercise Equipment Unlike big gym machines, or heavy weight benches, dumbbells and the like, the Vinsguir ab wheel roller is portable size-wise -- a compact design that enables you to take it anywhere to exercise, be it your home, office, gym, or outdoors.
- Amazingly Durable & Stable The high-strength stainless steel shaft of the ab roller for abs workout can hold a maximum weight of 440 pounds for your safety. The 3.2 inch ultra-wide abs roller ensures balance and stability as it does not deviate sideways. EVA rubber cotton handles provide nonslip and comfortable grip.
- Top Gift Choice for Fitness Enthusiasts This workout roller goes beyond working your abs and burning your fat. As a versatile roller wheel, it is of no contest when it comes to selecting an ideal gift for your family and friends; not to mention the satisfaction guaranteed after-sales services. Wish you a joyful shopping experience!
