Hongbinsheng three section elastic bar weight lifting pad band stop rod, made of high-quality steel, covered with foam, increases comfort, and is equipped with a ball bearing to rotate to prevent band stop tangle. Each piece is connected together with a wire, which is stronger than the clamp design

The reason why it has become one of the best bars for home exercise and home fitness is that it is a three piece structure that can be disassembled and stored in any small space, and can even fit into a regular backpack. The design of this resistance training bar is suitable for all resistance bands and tube clamps, and it can also be used with a double cable machine as an exercise bar, such as curling bar, triceps bar, shoulder push bar or chest push bar

Multipurpose : This compression band rod can be used as a Pilates weight rod, standing exercise rod, and compression band exercise rod.
