Product Description

Fitness Core And Abdominal Trainer, Fitness Machine, Home Gym Strength Training, Foldable Fitness Equipment

Regarding this project

The professional level abdominal/core muscle training machine features a curved track steel design that involves more muscles, elevating your abdominal/core muscle training to a higher level.

[Stable and durable] The machine is made of heavy steel frame, high-quality knee pad and foam covered handle to ensure high durability and comfortable exercise. The maximum weight can reach 440 pounds.

Adjustable Height: Four different training heights can be adjusted to meet different needs, targeting thigh, calf, and abdominal muscles to maximize training efficiency.

[LCD Display] The intelligent LCD training monitor cyclically displays the calories burned, exercise time, and number of repetitions.

Easy to assemble and fold: Clear and concise instructions make assembly easier. It can be folded up when not in use. It is not only suitable for gyms, but can also be used at home or in the office.
